

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Monday - 30 December 1957

Discussed with [ ] Office of Security, his handling of the Johnson Subcommittee transcript with the Pentagon. From 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., 27 December, Mr. Dechert had it available, from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. Mr. Quarles had it available, and again on the 28th at intervals from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Mr. Quarles was utilizing the transcript. At all times [ ] stood by in the outer office to return the transcript to the Agency.

Frank A. Ecker, Bureau of the Budget, had inquired whether we would have any proposed legislation. After checking with the DD/S, Mr. Ecker was advised as of the present time we have no plans for introducing proposed legislation. Mr. Ecker again mentioned "off the record" that Bureau of the Budget was recommending against any action on the proposed NSA legislation. 1958

Captain Mott, Executive Officer for General Twining, called with reference to the possibility of General Twining sitting in on the Director's 6 January briefing of the CIA Subcommittee of the House Committee on Armed Services. After checking with various people, including the Director, Captain Mott was advised that we would have no objection but that this was the prerogative of the Subcommittee. See memorandum for the record, dated 31 December 1957.

Miss Cabe of Congressman Robert H. Michel's office (R. Ill.) called requesting PHS forms be sent to the Congressman's office for one of his constituents in Illinois. [ ] who is interested in working for the Agency. [ ] Office of Personnel, is drafting a letter for Legislative Counsel's signature forwarding the forms to Congressman Michel.

Miss McCann of Senator John F. Kennedy's office (D. Mass.) called requesting that the Legislative Counsel's 13 December letter sent to Senator Kennedy's Administrative Assistant, Mr. Reardon, re [ ] be readdressed to the Senator so that the Senator could show it to [ ]. This was done and the letter dispatched 30 December.

SECRET

15

Office

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Monday - 21 October 1957

[ ] called and asked for a run-down on the status of our retirement legislation. He was advised of the position taken by Civil Service on our bill and our most recent meeting with the Bureau of the Budget. Dr. Addicott expressed a strong interest in this and other aspects of our legislation and expressed a desire to speak on this question with the Legislative Counsel at an appropriate time.

STAT